An SUV was reported damaged in the 500 block of Country Lane, Friday, May 12th. Person(s) unknown had "keyed" the victims vehicle. Police are investigating.

Police were called to Tubby's, 311 Dixie Highway, for a credit card fraud on Saturday, May 13th at 11:05 a.m. 2 men attempted to purchase alcohol with an apparent fraudulent credit card and fled prior to police arrival. Police located the suspect vehicle at Circle K Shell and began to question the 2 men and obtain identification. The 2 men then fled in a Black Nissan with Georgia license plates, going north on Dixie Highway at a high rate of speed. Police pursued after the car but discontinued the pursuit due to speeds. The men were later identified and police are continuing the investigation.

Police responded to a 2 car traffic crash at Aspen Drive and Hawthorne Lane on Monday, May 8th at 6:50 a.m. An SUV reportedly failed to yield from a stop intersection and stuck a car that was traveling west on Aspen Drive. There were no injuries in the crash.
